Remembrance Day Ceremony

Sunday 12 November 2017 at 10.00am

At the Cenotaph, Heerengracht, Cape Town

This very special Ceremony is your opportunity to honour all those men and women who died in wars, not of their making, but believing in the country they fought for.

Chief and Lady President, Stuart and Jacinta Munro, laying a wreath on behalf of the Society & Scots in South Africa

Remembrance Day, or Poppy Day as it is sometimes known, is observed every year on 11 November, or on the nearest Sunday to that date. How many people these days know what this date signifies?

The observance of 11 November is not about celebrating any victory, nor about boasting about our achievements in conflict. It is about showing respect for those who were willing to serve their country and, if need be, to make the ultimate sacrifice so that we who are here now can have the life that we know.

THE SOLDIER'S PRAYER

And when you go home tell them of us and say
For your tomorrow we gave our today
Our gift was great,
but you must now give a greater gift
We died. Now you must nobly live
To complete the plan
And make man brother unto man.

THE REMEMBRANCE PRAYER

They shall not grow old
As we that are left grow old
Age shall not weary them
Nor the years condemn them
At the going down of the sun
And in the morning

WE SHALL REMEMBER THEM
