FRIDAY 13 JULY, AT "CAFE ROUX" NOORDHOEK with SKHUMBUZO QAMATA : SOUTH EAST
SANDTON THEATRE on the SQUARE : with SKHUMBUZO QAMATA : 18 – 29 SEPTEMBER : FAR NORTH

Christine Weir, singer, voice coach, song writer and author, is a member of the Cape Town Caledonian Society. She has gathered many talented musicians and singers to present versions of "Christine and the Kilts" and other Celtic Fare in various venues around Cape Town including

"The Alma Café" and "Barleycorn"

Her stage productions are as Celtic as it gets in Southern Africa... everything from Irish jigs, Scottish reels, to traditional songs by Robbie Burns. With Christine (you will remember her in "Not the Midnight Mass") at the helm of "Christine and The Kilts" you will be excited by the varied repertoire that will inspire and delight lovers of Celtic music. Vocal harmony is a feature of the evening and added in this mix are the soulful sounds of Matthew Weir on bass and vocals, Leon Oosthuizen on accordion and vocals, Rayelle Goodman on Fiddle and Duncan Robinson on acoustic guitar, with the result that you have an unbeatable feast of Celtic sound.

If you own a kilt - wear it! If you have a tartan, strut it! Come and sing along and enjoy a real a 'guid' foot stomping evening of Irish and Scottish song! One lucky audience member will even win a bottle of Scotch whisky.

AT "ALMA CAFÉ" SATURDAY 23 JUNE

As it says above, you'll be excited by the varied repertoire that will inspire and delight lovers of Celtic music. Come along to this iconic venue in Rosebank and enjoy a real a 'guid' foot stomping evening. Bookings at the Alma Café 021 685 7377
