November 2018 UPDATE

It would seem that most people are already committed to other functions on 1 December (it was rather short notice). As a result we have decided to postpone the get together until our Valentine's Day function which we will advertise in January.

On 1 December there is also a St Andrews Day at the View, hosted by the Transvaal Scottish Regimental Association which looks like a wonderful event to attend.

On 2 December the 2018 Highland Choreography Festival is taking place at. If you attend you are in for a treat!

In addition to some incredible dancing, super talented Celtic duo Ryan McNeil and Simon Workman as well as the African Skye Pipe Band are set to entertain you. Not forgetting Rory's Jokes!!

You can keep updated on the St Andrews Facebook Page link

Have a Blessed Christmas and may 2019 be better for us all and the rebuilding of the St Andrews Society
