AUGUST 2015 NEWSLETTER

Dear Fellow Caledonians,

I cannot believe that this is my second newsletter to you all ! Where does time go? Your new Caledonian Committee is already hard at work and it seems we are looking forward to an exciting Caledonian year. I sincerely hope you will all join us in as many events as possible.

First up will be my Chairing and Kirking, where I will make a promise to do my best to justify the trust you have put in me. I have just had four wonderful days with the seventeen of the Middleton Clan, who arrived on mass to celebrate my second son, Cameron's, 50th birthday - which we did in grand Scottish style! And it reminded me how important family is. I look forward to many happy times in the coming year with you all, my Caledonian family.

We had a most pleasant, official visit by our Federation Chief, Lynn Chasomeris, and her Consort, George. George hails from Greece, models himself on Prince Phillip and is obviously very proud to be Lynn's consort. I would like to thank the Committee for all their hard work that made their visit such a success.

We now look forward to the official visit by our Provincial Chieftain, Stuart Munro, and his Lady President, Jacinta. I do hope that as many Caledonians as possible join us - there will be 6 delicious pots of soup and plenty of entertainment !

NEWS OF MEMBERS

First a warm welcome to new members of the Society - James Calder and Ruth Strong.

The Middleton twins represented Border U/14 hockey in Bloemfontein. Rose Thompson and Nookie Middleton participated in a 10 km hike on 4 July. Ralph & Rose Anley are visiting family in UK, while Roxanne Piderit is now back in East London after 5 weeks in Johannesburg and the Macdonell Family have just returned from three weeks in Scotland.

In news from the 'wards' - Cynthia Murray is recovering from an operation to her back, Sandra Rankin has had further treatment to her arm, Iris van der Zee is currently in St Marks Hospital, John Stoddard has pulled a hamstring, Estelle King is recovering well from a cataract operation, Agnes Cowie is recovering in hospital from another allergy attack and Rosita Moorcroft has been in hospital with pneumonia. Please keep all those who are "under the weather" in your thoughts and prayers.

A special mention must be made of Margaret Murray's 100th Birthday. Margaret is the oldest and possibly the longest-serving Caledonian in East London and the Caledonian Ladies had the honour of having tea with her to celebrate this wonderful achievement.

100 not out, and indeed, still going strong !

Caledonians - this is your Newsletter; so please send in any news for sharing with your Caledonian family.
