FEBRUARY 2017 NEWSLETTER

Dear Fellow Caledonians,

Happy New Year, Caledonian Folk. Let us hope that this year will be a year of growth for us all and indeed the Caledonian Movement. Of course growth in the Caledonian movement is largely up to us – the Caledonian Family. So I do hope that you will make it one of your new year's resolutions to support and help grow the Society. YOU ARE NEEDED !

As you will see from the photo, your Committee is already hard at work. Thanks to Sandra, we had a very good start to our first meeting – a glass of bubbly! You will see that we are already planning some exciting entertainment. However, we would very much appreciate feed-back from members and suggestions for the type of entertainment you would like. Shall we have belly-dancing, or climbing a mountain (I would go for that!), picnics, discos (our younger folk would vote for this I'm sure !), travelling lunch, film shows, etc ...

Roxanne showing us how to take a 'selfie' !

Burn's Night is our first entertainment on Saturday 28 January and I can assure you that the Athol Brose (Elliot Murray), Haggis (Callum MacIver), shortbread and an excellent main course & pudding is well in hand. So put on your kilts or best bib and tucker. The amazing thing about Robert Burns is that he is celebrated all over the world. What other country's poet is? So, folks, be proud of your heritage and what it stands for. I look forward to seeing you all at Burns!

NEWS OF MEMBERS Firstly a warm welcome to new member, Leanne Harbottle - we look forward to seeing her at upcoming functions. News from the classroom is that Dave Rankin passed all eight of his MBA modules (including 5 distinctions) for 2016. Emily Frauenstein has passed matric and also obtained her driver's license. She has also just returned from a missionary trip to Cambodia and has registered to start studying for a B.Ed Degree at Rhodes University. Rose Thompson's grandson, Jarrod de Kock, matriculated with two distinctions and is beginning his apprenticeship as a 'tool and die' maker. Sarah Middleton will be doing her Masters in Organisational Psychology at the University of the Witwatersrand; while Tanya Macdonell has just started at Stirling High School. On the sports-fields, Tumi Macdonell recently broke Stirling Primary School records in the shot put, discus and (keen not to be type-cast) for backstroke swimming. Tumi has also been made a Prefect and is House Captain of Brown House. In career news, Sandra Rankin's daughter, Frances de Lange, has been promoted to Primary School Headmistress at the Academy for Life Christian Academy; while Dr Liezel Cilliers is now Information Systems Head of Department at the University of Fort Hare. And last but not least, Agnes Cowie's granddaughter, Sarah Kingon, recently got married.
