OCTOBER 2016 "GATHERING" NEWSLETTER

Dear Fellow Caledonians,

What an exciting time it has been for East London Caledonians? Sandra, Rose and I were speaking just this morning about how we appear to have more time on our hands after our recent, hectic Caledonian schedule .....

Despite the best efforts of East London's notoriously fickle weather, our Garden Party to celebrate Queen Elizabeth's 90th birthday was a great success. "Our Royal Highnesses...."

A success that can be mainly put down to our "Queen Elizabeth" for the day (a.k.a. Beryl MacIver). Beryl had clearly done her homework and was every inch a queen down to her pearls, handbag and gloves. Her Consort, "Prince Philip" (Callum MacIver) was equally resplendent in his naval uniform and made sure to always walk the required two steps behind his "Queen" down the red carpet. I wonder how many men would be able to fit into a uniform last worn 43 years ago ... well Callum did with ease. It was also special that Callum and Beryl's daughters and grandsons could be with us for the day. The event was also blessed by a splendid array of eats from our Caledonian ladies.

Two weeks later, we hosted Patrick & Norma Craven, Federation Chief and Lady President, at our Eastern Cape Highland Gathering.

On Friday evening, Past Chiefs, Lady Presidents, the Ladies Committee and Caledonian Committee all gathered at my cottage to welcome Patrick and Norma. The next morning, bright and early, we all 'gathered' at Cambridge High School for the Gathering. David, Andrew and Ken Scott & his merry men had been hard at work the day before getting the venue ready and assembling the dancing platforms.

Despite some ominous grey “Scottish” weather, the morning went off well. With numerous stalls, pipe bands, highland dancers, Scottish country dancers, dog teams, the Boys Brigade Band and even some Ninjas – there was something for everyone.

All good until the great storm hit just after lunch. The heavens opened and a strong gust sent the marquee tent tumbling down on top of a band. Fortunately no one was hurt; but all had to rush for cover. The resilient souls who remained then adjourned to the Aloe Room, where competitions were completed and we were then treated to the most wonderful concert by the 1st Medical Battalion Band from Kwa-Zulu Natal.

Patrick and Norma Craven – Fed Chief and Consort

The rain eventually eased off and we were able to have our braai. A jolly good time was had by all and no one left until the bar (if not our clothes) was dry!

Special congratulations to Dave Rankin, the Gathering Convenor. Despite everything thrown at him, he put on a terrific show. He told me that it took three days for his kilt and shoes to dry; while Sandra was unable to get her car out of the mud until Monday! Thanks too to our Federation Chief, Patrick and his good lady, Norma; who both entered into the spirit of things. Both said it was a Gathering they would not forget and neither, I am sure, will we .... ?

NEWS OF MEMBERS Tumi Macdonell danced in the “Disney Adventure” Dance Show, which had a sell-out run at the Guild Theatre recently. Iris van der Zee is making a good recovery; while Elizabeth Weare is convalescing at her daughter's home after her recent heart attack. Sandra Rankin participated in the Spring Musicale; while Ralph & Rose Anley have been hiking the Whale Trail. Ken Scott & Linda Herman are about to move house. Sue & Roxanne Piderit have just returned from Portugal, where Roxanne was presenting a paper.
