SEPTEMBER 2016 NEWSLETTER

Dear Fellow Caledonians,

Thank you for the honour of electing me to be your Chief for another year and thank you to all who came to support myself and Rose Thompson, our Lady President, at the Chairing.

Your support is greatly appreciated and we pledge ourselves to serve the East London Caledonian Society to the best of our ability. Your new committee were listed in the last newsletter – but I should also mention our other honorary positions:

- Hon. Chaplain: Rev Des Plint
- Hon. Piper: Robert Rankin
- Hon. Auditor: John Stoddard
- Representative on Central Council: Duncan Macdonald

Our first duty (and indeed the duty of every East London Caledonian) will be to support the East London Highland Gathering at Cambridge High School on Saturday 3 September.

Dave Rankin (Gathering Convenor) and his Committee have put on a programme to be proud of but YOUR HELP IS NEEDED !. He has had an A3 Poster printed and if you are able to assist with the distribution of the poster, or sell tickets to the Gathering, or assist with the repair of the dancing platforms, or with the Friday night concert, or with the manning of the gates, or setting up on the Friday or, or.... please contact Dave, Andrew or Sandra ASAP.

'Min dae' now folk, so don't hesitate.

NEWS OF MEMBERS

(Remember - please send us your news for the next Newsletter !)

Callum Hitchcock (Callum & Beryl Maclver's grandson) is now a sports reporter for Madibaz Radio, the student radio station at Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University. Meanwhile Fiona Clark (their daughter) and her two sons have arrived from U.K. for a visit. Claude Macdonell will be travelling shortly to attend a family wedding in Belgium. Sue and Roxanne Piderit will be travelling to Portugal on 4 September. Their teams did well in the recent international masters' hockey tournament. Sue's team only lost one match and Roxanne's team won a silver medal in the A section. Ralph & Rose Anley and Sheila Godfrey have returned from visiting the U.K. Sheila brought greetings to all from Alan and Ann Woodhurst.

Cambridge to host EC celebration of Highland Gathering

By MIKE LOEWE

SCOTTISH ancestors will be celebrated by men and girls in tartan skirts, bagpipes and quick steps and jumps, at Cambridge High next month.

The Eastern Cape Highland Gathering on September 3 from 8.30am to 5pm is expected to attract 1 000 South Africans with Scottish ancestry from around the country, said convener Dave Rankin.

Because the event takes place during heritage month, the hosts, the East London Caledonian Society, has invited anyone to join in.

"Although the main events are the Highland dancing and pipe band competitions, the gathering is also a wonderful opportunity for others to publicise their activities," Rankin said.

"Already, ninjas living in Cambridge West, who follow a strand of Japanese martial arts, will be attending."

Rankin said as many as 100 bagpipe players and dancers will perform.

Asked how many people with Scottish ancestry lived in the province he said: "Well, for starters anyone with 'Mac' in their surname – but it runs to more than 20 000."

He said the 20 Caledonian societies in SA had, since being established in 1886, "never lost contact with Scotland", through cultural links such as the Royal Scottish Pipe Band Association.

The gathering committee invites anyone to erect a stall at a cost of R50. — mikel@dispatch.co.za
